May 2023

Dear Participant:

After careful consideration, the Trustees are pleased to announce, effective June 1, 2023, Wilson-McShane Corporation (WMC) will take over as the third party administrator for the Michigan Electrical Employees' Pension Fund (Fund).

WMC was founded in 1969 and provides stable, high-quality, and responsible third-party administration services solely to Taft-Hartley benefit funds like our Fund. Today WMC employs over 360 professionals and serves over 100 Taft-Hartley funds throughout the United States.

We feel this change will provide superior customer service in a cost-effective manner. Be on the lookout for future information regarding obtaining access to the Fund's new participant portal where you will be able to find up to date information regarding your benefits.

The day to day operations of the Fund will be administered from WMC's office in Duluth, Minnesota, at the address listed below, and will be serviced by a number of talented employees who will be knowledgeable about the Fund and your benefits.
